NEW-JERSEY.

The Newark Riots.

Gov. PRICE, of New-Jersey, has offered a reward of $600, for such information as may lead to the apprehension and conviction of the murderer of THOMAS MCCARTY, who was killed in the recent riot between the Irish Protestants and Catholics at Newark. He has also offered a reward of $300, for such information as may lead to the apprehension and conviction of the persons aiding or abetting in the destruction of the interior of the Catholic Church on that occasion.

FREE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—Rev. STEPHEN DOUGLAS, from Clayville, N. Y., has been called to the pastorship of the Free Episcopal Church of Jersey City. He will preach at his residence in Mercer-street, near Grove-street, until a suitable place is obtained for worship. A Sabbath School connected with this Church, is to be organized on Sunday afternoon.
